A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

On every wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments among their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of but a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

RUEF'S CONFESSION.

Abraham Ruef yesterday carried out his declaration that he would, following his change of plea to guilty in the extortion case against him, assist the bribery prosecution in its campaign against municipal corruption in San Francisco.

Obeying a subpoena from the grand jury, Ruef, shortly after 3 o'clock, went to the grand jury chamber where he took the witness stand and submitted to an examination that lasted from 3:20 until after 5.

From Special Agent Burns it was learned that the only matter in which Ruef was questioned was the alleged bribing of Mayor Schmitz and eighteen supervisors by the United Railways to grant that corporation a change in its franchise allowing the electrifying of its 250 miles of street railway in San Francisco.

If Burns, understanding of Ruef's testimony is correct, Ruef told the grand jury that President Patrick Calhoun, Assistant President Thornwell Mullalley, Chief Counsel Tirey L. Ford, and Assistant Counsel William M. Abbott, of the United Railways, paid or caused to be paid the sum of $200,000 for the provision named; that $1,000 of this amount was Ruef's "fee," that $50,000 went into the pocket of Mayor Schmitz, and that the remaining $89,000 was handed to the eighteen supervisors, sixteen of them receiving $4,000 each, another demanding and getting $10,000, and Chairman Gallagher, of the finance committee being paid $15,000 for acting as go between.

Subsequently it was said that indictments had been voted against four high officials of the United Railroads and Schmitz.

The understanding is that the carrying out of the sentence to be imposed upon Ruef two weeks hence by Judge Dunne will be indefinitely suspended, in order that when he takes the stand in court against "those higher up" his testimony shall not be that of a convict.

The San Francisco Call today publishes a statement to the effect that Mayor Schmitz has handed over the reins of power to a committee of seven prominent citizens under written authorization to manage the government.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FIGHT WITH AN APE.

The giant ape in the Central Park Zoo, New York, which Signor Caruso said was the offender when the singer himself was accused, yesterday afternoon attacked his keeper, inflicting serious wounds and terrifying scores of women and children. In the long and desperate battle "Old Nick," the Javanese Simian was worsting his guard, Patrick Keenan, when two other keepers jabbed him into submission with long rods and saved their comrade. Several of the women surrounding the cages became hysterical and the children cried and stampeded from the building in their fright.

Keenan discovered yesterday afternoon that "Old Nick" had obtained a sponge somewhere, and was sandwiching peanuts into the holes of it and then taking greedy bites. Keenan opened the door of the cage, entered and closed the door behind him. Talking some sort of gibberish to the animal, Keenan reached for the sponge with his foot. "Old Nick," with one agile, lightning bound, shot up through the air, and when he struck his powerful teeth were planted in Keenan's shoulder. The keeper tried to knock him off. He rolled him against the sides of the cage, but "Old Nick" held on with the tenacity of a bulldog. Keenan finally rolled him into a corner and tore the animal off.

Keenan was running for the door, when the maddened beast again sprang at him, and this time he fastened on to the man's leg. With his other foot Keenan kicked him off, but before he could escape, the ape had grabbed Keenan's left hand in his teeth and was shaking it as a terrier shakes a rat. Keenan's cries for help had brought other keepers, and by this time Robert Horton and Timothy Hoey were striking "Old Nick" with the sharp ends of long iron poles. One savage poke caused the ape to lose his hold. Keenan was dragged out and sent to the Presbyterian Hospital.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Palm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson and Timberman.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 17, 1907.

MR. FINLEY, President of the Southern Railway, seems to be a very fair and broad minded man and in a number of speeches he has made in different parts of the country recently he showed the railroads in a different light from that in which they are now so commonly depicted. In his speech before the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association in Philadelphia yesterday Mr. Finley made an attack on the "agitators and muckrakers," as he characterized the men who have been instrumental in the passage of legislation injurious to railroads and to capital generally and gave the railroads' side of the question. After outlining the close relation between the planter, the manufacturer and the carriers, and declaring that it would have been impossible for the South to develop as a manufacturing community without adequate transportation facilities and just rates, Mr. Finley said:

The railways are asking no special favors. They only ask that they be given the same degree of protection under the law that is given the business enterprises of other kinds. Laws subjecting common carriers to proper regulations such as might be necessary to prevent discrimination or unreasonable charges are proper and could not be objected to on any valid ground, but when legislation went beyond the proper field of regulation and proposed to reduce charges arbitrarily, and to impose penalties for failure to perform impossible services, it became destructive and the inevitable result was to cripple the ability of the carriers to provide the additional facilities so badly needed.

Surely this seems fair enough.

THE GREAT strain of immigration that flows mainly into the northern and western States has done much in building up and pushing forward an almost unparalleled growth in population and wealth in these sections. Many of the observant and wideawake men at the front of affairs in the South are endeavoring to bring the opportunities and resources of the South to the attention of the emigrant wanderers of the earth seeking new homes for themselves and their posterity. The Norfolk Virginian, in an article favoring organized efforts to secure the establishment of Norfolk as a port of entry for European immigrants, declares that the necessity of securing labor to keep the wheels of industry, progress development in motion is one of the chief problems confronting the State. It adds:

In immigration of the right kind and in sufficient quantity lies the only solution. This is generally recognized and admitted, as is also the fact that, if this immigration is to be secured, we must seek the aliens in their home countries, and, having induced them to emigrate, to land them in this country at a southern port.

But it should be remembered that immigration of the right kind, and only the right kind, is wanted in the South. This is no section for the off-scourings of Europe and such people would be most undesirable citizens.

THE STATEMENT is made today by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor that the amount of canned beef exported from the United States the present fiscal year will be only one-fourth what it was last year. The decrease is noted in the trade with nearly every country that uses American canned beef. Between the lines of the bureau's report on this subject, can be read the sequel to the "Packingtown" expose of last year. That the passage of the meat inspection law, safeguarding the consumers of the product has not reassured foreigners sufficiently to induce them to continue to buy the product, is to be seen by the figures given out today. The greatest falling off during the current year was in the trade with Great Britain. There need be but little said concerning the above, as it is apparent that American packers are responsible for the loss they have sustained.

PEOPLE who send special delivery letters are liable to notice something about an order from the Postoffice Department that ordinary stamps are sufficient and mail their letters without the distinctive stamp. They should read more carefully and learn that the new law does not go into operation till July 1. As soon as Congress passed the law allowing ordinary stamps to be used in paying the fees for special delivery people began to act as if it had gone into immediate operation, to the considerable annoyance of themselves and their friends and the postal officials. The law has not yet gone into effect, but it will in six weeks.

THE Pennsylvania legislature has adjorned after a session marked by absenteeism and neglect of duty, and the people of that State are just as glad as are the people of Virginia when their legislature adjourns. Legislatures meet too often anyway and remain in session too long.

From Washington.

Washington, May 17.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt, their son Archie, and Assistant Secretary Latta and the usual secret service guard and following of servants, left for "Pine Knot," Virginia, at 11 o'clock today on the private car Magnet, attached to the regular Florida express of the Southern Railway. If schedule is maintained, the President will reach North Garden, the nearest railroad station to Pine Knot, at 2:30 p. m. Wagons will be in waiting at the station to take the party out the 12-mile drive to Mrs. Roosevelt's country cottage. Secretary Latta and the secret service men will make their headquarters at Charlottesville during the President's stay in Virginia.

When President Roosevelt left Washington today for "Pine Knot," Mrs. Roosevelt's country home in Virginia, he took with him a complete transcript of the testimony, as well as the report of Attorneys Kellogg and Serverance in the Harriman case. During the next three or four days he expects to study the papers thoroughly, and if possible arrive at a conclusion as to whether it would be practicable to prosecute the railroad wizard, and attempt to dissolve his combinations. It is known that he shares, to a certain extent, the doubts that exist in the minds of some of the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Although he is satisfied that Harriman is morally guilty of many of the offences charged against him he is not at all sure that he could be convicted in legal proceedings. In fact, he is inclined to believe that Harriman has, in a number of instances, kept within the line of the law. In going over the case undisturbed by other business, the President hopes to reach a positive opinion one way or the other. He will let the Department of Justice conduct its study of the case independently. When the attorney general's recommendations are finally made the President will then be in a position to act upon them intelligently. Also, it is believed that certain questions of expediency have presented themselves to the President. Representations have been made to him that prosecution of Harriman would bring about such a disturbed condition in the business world, that a panic might ensue. The President will give this phase of the matter earnest and serious consideration, although at this time he is disposed to regard it as a "bug-a-boo" raised by the timorous hearted and those immediately interested in keeping the Harriman manipulations out of the courts. It may be stated on the best of authority that the President will do nothing rashly, and it is safe to predict that unless he sees a reasonable chance of convicting Harriman and dissolving the alleged illegal combinations of his railroads, he will not take the step.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is on the war path. The members are indignant over the publication of the confidential report of the special counsel in the Harriman case, and have begun a rigid investigation with a view to discovering the "leak." An employe of the commission is under suspicion. If the identity of the man can be established he will be summarily removed. The commissioners deplore the publicity over the Harriman case, in view of the fact that the investigation was made upon direct orders from the President and it was their desire to submit the papers and records in the case to the President before making their findings public.

Two witnesses at the Brownsville hearing today testified that the first firing on the night of August 13 came from the direction of the Fort. Charles E. Hammond, of San Antonio, who was in Brownsville on the night of the shooting, head the men who were doing the firing pass the hotel, and from their voices he said he could identify them as negroes.

It is learned that the man who was Wednesday night assaulted with a dangerous weapon in front of the De Sota apartment house was Alejandro Garland, an attache of the Peruvian legation. Charles Edwards, secretary of the democratic congressional campaign committee, is said to be his assailant. It is said that Edwards left Washington for Jamestown yesterday. Miss Scott, over whom the row was about, has also disappeared.

Ebenezer Ellis, librarian of the Fish Commission, was found dead at his home, 1133 Fifth street northwest this morning. It is supposed that death was due to heart disease. He was from Michigan.

The Interstate Commerce Commission decided today that one railroad may not receive preferential rates on its own supplies carried by another. In other words a railroad must pay the same rates for shipping coal or construction material over another line that individual shippers pay.

Because a pretty dancer kicked her dainty toes at a smoker given recently by the Business Men's League, and sang a catchy song, "Not Necessarily So," the pious members of the Good Citizenship League of Atlantic City have furnished the prosecutor with the names of ten of the leading business men who were present, requesting him to place the matter before the grand jury.

The case of Mayor Eugene Schmitz, of San Francisco, charged with extortion, will go before Judge Dunne next Monday. The British steamer Marie Therese, which cleared a few days ago from Gibraltar, sprung aleak shortly after leaving that port. The crew worked at the pumps for two days and two nights in an effort to keep the water under, but finally they were forced to take to the boats in the Gulf of Lyons. A few minutes afterward the steamer went down. The men were in the boats for 50 hours when they were picked up, half dead from exhaustion, by an outward bound steamer, and carried to London.

A SPRING MEDICINE.

With the advent of Spring many people feel the need of a tonic of some sort, and there are not a few favorite spring-tonic formulas treasured almost as heirlooms in old families. Some of these have real merit and should be made public for the public good, but their holders are in most cases loath to give them wide publicity. A thoroughly scientific prescription that is found to do the work required of a Spring medicine and to do it quickly and agreeably is composed of ½ oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1 oz. Bulso Mixture, ½ oz. Fluid Extract Gentian Compound and 15 ozs. water. The proper dose is a tablespoonful taken three times a day, before meals. Any good pharmacy will put up this prescription at small expense.

Episcopal Council.

SECOND DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

Warrenton, Va. May 16, 1907.

The council resumed its session for business at 9:30 o'clock, with Bishop Gibson in the chair. After the reading of the minutes of the previous day by the secretary, the council completed the election of supplementary deputies for the general convention. All the lay supplementary deputies were elected on the first ballot as follows: Judge White Mr. Rosewell Page, Judge A. W. Wallace and Mr. John G. Williams. The Rev. Dr. McLaren, agent of the Virginia Bible Society, addressed the council on the important work of this organization.

One hundred dollars was voted as a salary for the ensuing fiscal year to the historiographer of the diocese, the Rev. E. L. Goodwin.

The Rev. Robt. H. Goodwin moved that the work of the Virginia Bible Society be heartily recommended by the council to the diocese. This was unanimously carried. Only $400 was contributed to this society by the Episcopal church in Virginia last year.

The number of supplementary deputies to general convention was completed on the 3rd ballot by the election of Dr. Green and the Rev. J. Y. Downman. The council then took a recess for divine service at which the Rev. Wm. Barnwell, of Petersburg, was the preacher.

Visitations, 112; confirmations, 673; of these colored, 29; deacons ordained, 1; priests ordained, 5; of this number colored, 1; churches consecrated, 6; letters dimissory of clergy removing to other dioceses given, 7; letters dimissory of clergy accepted from other dioceses, 5.

The bishop spoke with much favor of the society now established for preserving the colonial churches which are the most valued monuments of the past in this diocese. He also called upon the various rectors and parishes to send such old records and plate as they have to the church exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition as a testimony of the power and influence of the church in the colonial period. These are to be sent to the Rev. Thomas C. Darst, secretary of the committee on entertaining and receiving the general convention to be held in Richmond this fall. A rece pt will be given by the Rev. Mr. Darst for any valuables that may be intrusted to the care of the committee. The whole church exhibit is to be brought to Richmond during the meeting of the general convention. The bishop recommended that the third Sunday after Trinity be appointed for preaching a sermon on the history of the Church in Virginia during the past 300 years and that an opportunity be given in all parish churches and chapters for taking up the men's thankoffering. The bishop also recommended the building of an Episcopal church contiguous to the University of Virginia. The bishop next referred to the valuable piece of church plate given by Governor Andros to the church in Jamestown in 1694, and now owned by the Diocese of Virginia. He asked that it be used hereafter at the opening communion service of each annual council. [It will be remembered that this piece of plate was deposited for 25 years in the First National Bank of this city and has been fully described in the Gazette.] A beautiful reproduction in colors of the seal of the Diocese of Virginia was then shown to the council after the bishop had referred to its preparation and completion during the past year in accordance with the resolution of the last council.

Resolutions of respect were unanimously passed in affectionate remembrance of the Rev. Dr. Walker, for thirty-years professor at the Theological Seminary near Alexandria and of the Rev. Wm. Catesby Latane rector of Montross parish, Westmoreland county, for many years.

The present Archdeacon of Virginia, the Rev. J. Poyntz Tyler, was re-elected as Archdeacon to serve until such time as the appointment may be rescinded by the Council. Mr. Joseph Bryan presented the report of the finance committee which was accepted. This was followed by the report of Mr. Joseph Wilmer from the committee on clerical support. A strong recommendation was made for the increase of clerical salaries, and Dr. Crawford then offered a resolution that the salary of an unmarried clergyman be fixed at a minimun of $600 and of a married clergyman at $1,000 with a rectory in the diocese of Virginia.

The executive committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society and other standing committees of the council, together with the standing committee of the diocese, were next elected, all the members of the latter except one being residents of Alexandria and Seminary Hill, these gentlemen being the Revs. P. P. Phillips, Berryman Green D. D., and Messrs A. Herbert, L. M. Blackford, L. L. D. and J. R. Zimmerman.

Dr. Crawford's resolution was withdrawn in favor of a resolution of the Rev. J. R. Ellis asking that 1,000 copies of the report of the committee on clerical support be printed and 10 copies each be sent to the seven wardens of each parish so that the report be read read publicly to the congregation.

After the reading of the report of the committee on parochial reports by the Rev. J. H. Dickinson the council took a recess till eight o'clock for the annual meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions.

At the meeting of the council in the interests of Diocesan Missions on Wednesday night the Rev. John Moncure, D. D., Archdeacon of the colored work and the Rev. Robert A. Goodwin, Secretary of the Diocesan Missionary Society read their annual reports. The report of the President of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, Miss Sallie Stuart, of this city, was read by the Rev. Edgar Carpenter, of Grace Church. The report of Archdeacon Moncure was the most encouraging for years past, and he showed the great importance of missionary work amongst the colored people, as this race represents a large percentage of the population of Virginia and the South. In Miss Stuart's report of the Woman's Auxiliary 63 diocesan branches are reported and the total contributions are $8,646.14. The Rev. Robt. A. Goodwin stated in his report on the Diocesan Missions that the total contributions including the Lenten offerings from the Sunday Schools for the past year were $9,755.58. Fifty-one missionaries are aided in part by the society. Especial attention was called in the report to the necessity of increasing the salaries of ministers chiefly in the rural parishes on account of the advance in the cost of living, and Mr. Joseph Bryan, of Richmond, in seconding the report, made a telling address on this important subject.

Today's Telegraphic News

St. Petersburg, May 17.—Eleven of the alleged conspirators in the plot to assassinate the Czar in his palace at the Tsarskoe-Salo have been arrested at Terrioki, Finland. The secret service officials are on the trail of other suspects and further arrests are expected soon.

From an official source the following details of the conspiracy were furnished today to a correspondent of the Publishers' Press. The conspirators planned to get into the chapel in the palace where Emperor Nicholas and the principal palace officials worship. Concealing themselves until all the dignitaries should be present at a service they intended to hurl a bomb at the Czar.

A revolutionist made repeated efforts to gain admission to the chapel, but failed. Finally he approached a Cossack officer and offered him $10,000 if he would allow a stranger to enter the chapel during a service. The magnitude of the bribe astonished the officer, who at once reported the incident. An investigation developed the details of the plot.

It is believed the assassination was planned by the same gang of terrorists that attempted to kill Premier Stolypin by throwing a bomb at him in his residence nearly a year ago.

England Responsible for Douma?

Paris, May 17.—The greatest interest has been aroused here in the story printed by the Journal de Geneve declaring that Great Britain is really responsible for the continued existence of the Russian Douma. The paper which makes the statement is usually well informed on affairs of the various European chancelleries, and for this reason it is believed there is a great measure of truth in the story. Great Britain, it is asserted, practically threatened to call off pending negotiations for a treaty with Russia if the Douma is dissolved. Russia is anxious to arrange a treaty with Great Britain. Members of the British cabinet felt, however, that their government would be discredited with the people if a treaty should be arranged with Russia in the face of a direct slap at parliamentary goverement given by the Czar. Accordingly strong representations were made to St. Petersburg that if the Douma were dissolved Great Britain would find it necessary to end all negotiations. Russia needs the treaty, as it promises to be the means of supplying her with much-needed funds, and quickly decided to allow the Douma to continue in existence.

General Kuroki in New York

New York, May 17.—Only a comparatively busy day of sightseeing was planned today for Gen. Kuroki, Japan's great military hero, who is enjoying his first visit to New York. The programme might have been considered enough to tire an ordinary man, but Kuroki did not contemplate the plans for his entertainment with fear.

A visit to the stock exchange and Wall street was made this morning and then the Japanese general was taken for a long ride over both branches of the subway. Kuroki was extremely interested in the underground road.

Col. Robert Thompson had invited Kuroki to be his guest at noon and the meal was taken on the top floor of one of the down town skyscrapers.

Late this afternoon, according to the programme, the distinguisded guest will be taken for a ride through Central Park unless the threatened rain makes this impossible.

Tonight his visit will be celebrated with a banquet at the Astor. Admiral Dewey will preside and 1,500 guests will attend.

Bonds Found.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 17.—Erie Railroad bonds valued at $116,740.16 and $575 in gold coins were today found in a box taken from a walled in fire place in an old house that was being torn down. The building was for half a century occupied by George C. Moran, a recluse, who at 91 years of age disappeared in 1874. Bones found concealed in the house indicate that he was murdered by some one who knew of his hoard, but who failed to find it.

The Erie bonds were issued in 1854 and the par value is $40,000. Accrued dividends it is believed will bring the value to the figure named.

The bonds have been placed in the hands of Federal Judge Taylor, who will hold them for five years. If legal heirs do not appear they will then be turned over to contractor B. W. Hollingsworth, who made the discovery. If heirs do appear, Hollingsworth will, under the law, get one-fourth the value of the find.

Uprisings of Wine Growers.

Paris, May 17.—The uprising of wine growers in portions of France now threatens great danger to the republic. Today the little village of Beziers, where a great mass meeting of dissatisfied wine growers was held on Sunday, is practically under military guard. Rioting occurred last night and residents are in a panic, fearing there will be incursions from neighboring towns and fighting may occur. Today Premier Clemencean was notified that unless immediate steps are taken to appease the wine growers the insurrectionary movement is bound to assume dangerous proportions. The wine growers complain that they can no longer sell their wines, and they blame the government, alleging that by allowing sugar to be used in making artificial wines their business has been ruined.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips, of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson & Timberman.

Declined to Become a Queen.

Paris, May 17.—The fact that Mrs. Potter Palmer, of Chicago, has declined an offer of marriage by the King of Servia became known here today through the indiscretion of a Servian official. The startling announcement has created a sensation. In making his offer the king arranged to make the American woman a full-fledged European queen. The offer to Mrs. Palmer was diplomatically but formally made and declined in the same way. Her life and her obligations, she said, made it impossible for her to accept. While Mrs. Palmer has refused, according to the report, there is still a change for some other American woman to ascend the throne. Negotiations were first started by a Servian official with a prominent man living here to inquire if he he knew of any cultured and wealthy American woman who could assume the duties and responsibilities of becoming the Servian queen. It was explained that the king is anxious to improve his finances and popularity, and believes he can do both by a marriage with a rich American woman. Mrs. Palmer was recommended by the man appealed to and since she has refused it is possible an offer may be made to another "available" American woman.

The Haywood Trial.

Boise City, Idaho, May 17.—Yesterday's session of the Haywood trial was devoid of sensationalism. It was necessary to examine eleven jurymen before a jury was secured. The defense then premptorily challenged Allen Pride. This vacancy is being filled today. There is little chance now that the jury shall be completed before next week, although the prosecution has directed witnesses to be on hand Saturday.

The Orchard interview of Thursday evening was brought to the attention of the court this morning when Clarence Darrow, of counsel for Haywood, demanded that Governor Gooding should be haled before the court, examined and punished for contempt for permitting the interview.

The Cotton Manufacturers.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 17.—A conference of members of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association was held this morning, at which a large number of the manufacturers interested in the export trade were present, with the object of formulating plans to overcome the obstacle which now confront the American producer of cotton fabrics who desires a foreign market for his goods. The conference took on special importance in view of the statement made by Dr. W. P. Wilson, director of the Philadelphia commercial museum, to the effect that the introduction of American goods abroad was a Herculean task and one which would bring but slight returns for time, labor and money expended for a long period.

Killed by Terrorists.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, May 17.—Terrorists today attacked the city officers of the railroad and after a fight escaped with $5,000. Four persons were killed and nine wounded in the fight. There were fully a dozen men in the band. Soldiers were also on guard. Two of the robbers covered the unarmed citizens while the others made a rush for the strong box. Two soldiers were killed and four wounded before they reached the place where the money was kept. Then the robbers escaped. As they were retreating the soldiers fired a volley after them, killing two bystanders and hurting five others.

Killed by Cossacks.

Lodz, Russia, May 17.—Fifteen men were killed and thirty seriously wounded today when a patrol of Cossacks deliberately fired on a crowd of unoffending workmen employed by the Kuttner Spinning Mills. Several of the injured are expected to die. A band of terrorists had held up a mail wagon in the neighborhood, securing 2,000 roubles after killing one Cossack and three postoffice officials. When the patrol of Cossacks arrived on the scene they deliberately fired on the workmen in retaliation for the terroists attack.

House Blown to Pieces.

Cumberland, Md., May 17.—Four lives will probably be the forfeit for the carelessness of Lawrence Hocker, a miner, living at Lonsconing, near here, in placing a half-filled powder flask in the kitchen stove. When the powder exploded it set off a keg of the explosive and the house was blown to pieces. Hocker was interrupted while filling the flask and without thinking what he was doing put the flask in the stove. Hocker, his brother Emert, their mother and a grandson are all believed to be fatally injured.

Suicide Not Rev. Cooke.

New York, May 17.—Upon the statement of Edward Nicoll Townsend jr., of Hempstead, L. I., that the man who committed suicide in a Bowery saloon early today is not Rev. Jere Knode Cooke, former pastor of St. George's Church, Hempstead, who eloped recently with Floretta Whaley, the 17-year-old heiress, the police today abandoned the opinion they had held that the missing pastor had been located. Townsend knew the minister well.

Chief Killed by His Predecessor.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 17.—Chief of Police Thomas Guess, of Bellvernon, who was shot in the head by former Chief of Police Wm. L. Cate, late yesterday afternoon, died at Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg, early today. Cate, drink-crazed, had been arrested by his successor in office. While being searched in the Borough lockup he drew a large revolver and fired the fatal shot. Cate then fled from the building and by flourishing and firing the weapon held the town in terror until he was finally overpowered and kicked into submission. Public feeling over the outrage ran so high that Cate was hustled to the Fayette county jail at Uniontown for fear angry citizens would lynch him. Before leaving home Cate told his wife he intended to kill Tom Guess for his real or fancied wrongs.

Invoked "Unwritten Law."

Jackson, Miss., May 17.—After breaking in the door of his house which he found locked against him, J. A. Tadley, a member of the police force, shot and killed R. W. Taylor, whom he found in company with his wife. Tapley then went to the police station and gave himself up, offering as his defense the "unwritten law," his right to protect his wife from Taylor's blandishments. Mrs. Tayley fled from the house and her husband did not pursue her. Taylor had a family living at Baton Rouge and was preparing to rejoin them there.

Chicago Grain Market.

Chicago, May 17.—Bulls and bears battled again in the wheat pit of the board of trade at the opening gong this morning, the bears getting the first fall. July sold at 98 to 97, then on down to 96¼. Coming back, the bulls bid furiously and caused the July option to react to 97½, keeping up the gait until the figure was 98¾. September wheat sold from to 94, until 101½ was reached. The highest prices Thursday were July 99¾, September 100¾. Neither bulls or bears seemed to know whether they were drifting. The excitement was intense. Corn opened ½ lower with sales of May at 53½ to 53¾, July at 52, 78 to 52¾ and September at 53 to 52¾.

July wheat closed at 100¼; September at 100¼ and May at 98¾ This is the first time in the present campaign that the July option has closed about a dollar.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 17.—London was a moderate buyer at the opening of the stock market and in the first few minutes taking about 12,000 shares and giving a start to a moderate advance in the early trading. But before the end of the first hour another advance in wheat prices started a selling movement that caused declines in many of the important western railroad stocks on which the early advances were lost and some slight net declinines sustained.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Stole a Pair of Shoes.

A young colored woman named Blanche Parker was arrested last night by Officer Garvey on the charge of stealing a pair of shoes from Mrs. Rosa Hyman, who keeps a shoe store on north Royal street and of assaulting the proprietress. The woman had entered the store with another colored woman and while the latter was engaged in making a purchase the Parker woman secreted a pair of shoes under her coat. Mrs. Hyman seized the woman and compelled her to drop the shoes, when the woman assaulted Mrs. Hyman, choking and scratching her on the neck. The would-be thief fled, leaving her coat, and was pursued by Office Garvey and she had reached the vicinity of the shipyard before she was captured. During her flight a number of boys joined in the chase, one of whom was struck by a stone thrown by the fugitive. The latter was brought in the Police Court this morning and fined $20, which she was unable to pay, and was sent to jail.

Personal.

President Roosevelt and his party passed the union station of this city at 11:30 this morning in a special car attached to the Florida express. They were on their way to "Pine Knot" Albemarle county. But few people were at the station at the time the train passed.

Mr. George K. Brawner and Miss Marian G. Beach were married last night at the parsonage of the M. E. Church South by Rev. C. D. Bulls.

Rev. Berryman Green, of the Theological Seminary, will preach at St. John's Chapel, West End, on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. L. C. Barley, Mrs. C. W. Wattles and Miss Philippa Wattles will serve tea at the Alexandria Golf Club house tomorrow from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Memorial Day.

Friday next, May 24th, will be Confederate Memorial Day and it will be appropriately observed in this city when the usual programme incident to the occasion will be carried out. In the morning committees from Lee Camp will visit the several cemeteries and strew the graves of the Confederate dead with flowers. Later the monument at the corner of Prince and Washington streets and the mound in Christ Church yard will be decorated and in the evening Lee Camp will assemble at their hall and after a march will proceed to the monument where the exercises will be held. Rev. C. D. Bulls will be the orator of the day and will be introduced by Commander W. A. Smoot of the camp. There will be music and later the camp will proceed to Christ Church yard where the exercises will close.

Case Dismissed.

Two rival dealers in second-hand furniture, &c., conducting business in the vicinity of the City Hall, had a row of words in the station house last night, one accusing the other of diverting business from his store. Failing to bring the dispute to a close when ordered to do so by Chief Goods and Lieutenant Smith, they were taken in custody, when they left collateral for their appearance in the Police Court this morning. Both the litigants were on hand when the court convened and recited the origin of the trouble from their individual points of observation. They were released upon promising to keep the peace toward each other in future. Later in the day one of the men employed a lawyer and instituted suit against the other for defamation of character.

Suit Filed.

Messrs. Park Agnew and Archibald Greenlees, trading as John P. Agnew & Co., creditors of the Purity Ice Company, yesterday filed suit in Washington against that company, Stilson Hutchins, Wm. J. Dante, John E. Graw, as officers, and Lucas P. Loving as trustee, to collect about $7,000 which they allege to be due to them. It is stated that the Purity Ice Company has creditors holding claims against it aggregating $70,000, among the creditors being the Novelty Steam Boiler Works, of Baltimore, and other Baltimore firms. The suit filed today is to enforce the liability of the persons named as trustees and officers of the ice company, which was adjudged bankrupt about a year ago.

Dangerous Practice.

A Greek fruit dealer was arraigned before the Police Court this morning charged with casting banana skins, orange peelings, &c., on the curb and gutter before his place of business. He had previously been informed of the fact that such procedures were misdemeanors. He was fined $2. It is hoped that his fate will prove a warning not only to fruit dealers but to many others who purchase bananas and thoughtlessly drop the rinds upon pavements, where they become a menace to life and limb, especially at night when they cannot be seen and avoided. It is hoped the police will keep a sharp lookout and take others in custody who are guilty of such acts.

Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Bertie Reed, wife of Mr. Edwin M. Reed, who died Wednesday night at the home of her uncle, Mr. George H. Hinken, on Queen street, will take place from the residence of Mr. Hinken at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. D. Bulls, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, assisted by Rev. E. V. Regester, presiding elder of that denomination in this district. The burial will be in Bethel Cemetery. The pallbearers will be Mayor F. J. Paff and Messrs. L. H. Dolan, C. B. Marshall, K. Lambeth, F. J. Pollard and Claude Pickin.

The schooner W. H. McGuire, from Nomini creek with lumber to H. K. Field & Co., has arrived. The schooner May, loaded with lumber by the same firm, has sailed for Munday's Point.

Luna Park.

Saturday, May 25th, is the day set for the opening of Luna Park. A harvest of good things from the musical and vaudeville field will unquestionably be reaped, as the forthcoming season promises to eclipse anything and everything that has heretofore been presented at the park. A costly band shell has been erected, which will afford shade and shelter to all wishing to attend the band concerts. The spacious hippodrome where the vaudeville will take place is another feature worthy of special mention. New and more appealing conditions will be offered in the dancing pavilion. A spacious skating rink has also been installed, having a geometrical floor space of twelve thousand feet of selected maple. The picnic house has been remodeled. The athletic field has been made more inviting than ever. Ladies' parlors and resting rooms have been erected in the centre of the park grounds, which will afford every comfort and convenience. There are cigar emporiums for those addicted to the Raleigh habit, and the restaurant, which is under new management, is another addition. The spring which furnishes drinking water for the park is noted far and wide for its purity and medicinal qualities. A significant change of management is evidenced from the park's general appearance, showing many marked improvements over last season. A gratifying feature inaugurated this season for the exclusive convenience of Alexandrians is the new system the electric railway company has adopted of running their cars up a newly arranged incline direct to the main entrance. The management feels that with the heretofore tiresome task of walking up the hill eliminated, Alexandria's interest in the new Luna Park will be augmented to no small degree. Several brilliant features are booked for the opening date, including the Royal Berlin Military Band, Paul Zierold, Conductor, and the Five Flying Gillmors, a sensational serial act novel and new to this section of the country.

Police Court.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Blanche Parker, colored, charged with stealing shoes from Mrs. Rosa Heyman and with assaulting the latter, was fined $20.

Two white men, charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson and Timberman.

Appendicitis

Is due in a large measure to abuse of the bowels, by employing drastic purgatives. To avoid all danger, use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the safe, gentle cleansers and invigorators. Guaranteed to cure headache, biliousness, malaria and jaundice, at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weather has been fair and pleasant today.

The case of Bunart Brennon, of Culpeper county, who is charged with destroying a postoffice box, was called yesterday afternoon before United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett, and continued until tomorrow on account of the absence of a witness.

The proprietors of the Ferry Landing fishing shore were arrested a few days ago by Constable A. J. Payne and taken before Justice Triplett in Fairfax county charged with assaulting a seine hauler named John Whitbeck. The case was compromised upon the defendants paying the costs and a fine of $1.

The coroner's jury which will investigate the circumstances in connection with the killing of William Creegan on south Royal street by an electric car last Sunday afternoon will meet at Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaker's parlors tonight.

Mr. Joseph F. Rodgers has been engaged by Mr. Francis J. Pollard to erect a three story mill on his premises, corner King and Henry streets, to meet the increased demand in his business.

The Circuit Court of Fairfax will commence on Monday next. Judge L. C. Barley, of Alexandria, will preside.

PASTOR RETURNS FEE.

Rev. John Lewis Clark, pastor of the Bushwick avenue Congregational Church, New York, admitted last night to the trustees and deacons of the church that he had committed a great wrong in marrying William Ellis Corey and Miss Mabelle Gilman, and said that he had returned Corey's fee. The fee, was said to have been $1,000, but Mr. Clark has denied that it was so much as that.

The Rev. Mr. Clark, after admitting that he had done wrong, begged the indulgence of the church and the trustees, who consented to condone his offense and share with him, "the humiliation and chagrin," as they put it in the statement given out by them.

The committee, made up of the trustees and deacons, met at 7 o'clock and remained in session until 11 o'clock. At the end of the meeting they gave out the pastor's letter.

Much bitterness was manifested in the meeting, as was evidenced by the sound of angry voices, which could be heard in the street outside the church. It was learned that the trouble had arisen over the question as to whether the findings of the committee should be made public or not, and that two factions had been formed, but that a compromise had been reached at 11 o'clock when the statement was given out.

A campaign was carried on all day yesterday by the women members of the congregation in behalf of the pastor, with whom he is reported to be very popular. Practically a house-to-house canvass was made, and it was said that this canvass had its effect on the meeting.

Dr. Clark seems to be in especial favor among the women. They all spoke in the highest terms of him.

Premature Explosion.

Three men were killed outright, two so seriously injured that they will die, and three others badly injured, in addition to the crashing of a freight engine and eleven cars through a bridge into Chattanooga creek, the destruction of three residences and a pile driver near by, as the result of a premature explosion of a blast about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the foot of Lookout mountain on the Stevenson extension of the Southern Railway in Tennessee.

The bridge was crushed in by several tons of rock hurled by the blast just as the freight train was going on the bridge. Other pieces of rock, hurled for 1,200 feet, crashed through the pilot of the pile driver of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad, which was at work driving piles in Chattanooga creek for a new viaduct, killing Engineer Shaefer and Fireman Hyder instantly. Other pieces of rock, hurled 500 and 600 yards, struck the residences on the side of Lookout mountain, crashing through the roofs and floors of the buildings.

Three Greeks who were working on the new line some distance from the blast were struck by flying pieces of rock. Two of them are at the hospital in a serious condition.

The blast was set off, it is said, by J. Ford, a powder man, employed by the contractors. He had only been employed for a short time by the company.

Washington Episcopalians

At yesterday's session of the twelfth annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington there was a lengthy discussion, participated in by Thomas Nelson Page, former Secretary of the Navy Hillary A. Herbert, A. F. Brown and Rev. R. H. McKim on a constitutional amendment calling for non-representation in the convention of parishes who refuse to pay their apportionment.

The vote on the standing committee and the deputies to the general convention, to meet in Richmond, in October, was taken shortly before the convention adjourned for luncheon.

The proposed amendment to the constitution was lost, by the non-concurrence of the clerical and lay orders.

Thomas Nelson Page was elected a lay deputy to the general convention which is to meet in Richmond in October. Other delegates elected to the convention were Rev. Alfred Harding, D. D., Rev. R. H. McKim, D. D., Rev. Arthur S. Johns, and Rev. R. P. Williams for the clergy, and Messrs. Arthur S. Browne, Charles S. Stanley and Dr. William C. Rives for the laity.

The Red Men.

The Great Council of Red Men of Virginia concluded its sessions at Norfolk last night, the raising of the great chiefs at Armory Hall being the last number on the programme. Officers were elected as follows:

Bolling, of Norton; great prophet, Charles Burkert, of Manchester; great chief of records, Cornelius S. Wells, of Manchester; great keeper of wampum, H. A. Southall, of Lynchburg; great representatives to the Great Council of the United States—Charles Burkert, of Manchester; Cornelius S. Wells, of Manchester; C. Emmett Hill, of Richmond, and A. M. Rees, of Hampton; fifth vice president, E. J. Northrop, of Falls Church; treasurer, James Perley, of Charlottesville; secretary, L. T. Christian, of Richmond.

The following were recommended to the governor from which to make an appointment to the State board of embalming: George W. Kurtz, of Winchester; F. C. Rees, of Hampton, and R. W. Baker, of Suffolk.

Horoscope of Spain's Babe.

A peck of trouble has already been cooked up for Alfonso Pio Cristino Eduardo, etc., Prince of the Asturias, otherwise the new royal baby of Spain, by Gustave Meyer, the astrologer who made Hoboken famous. According to his horoscope, cast by the star-wise professor, the future king will have a career that would put a Pittsburg millionaire to blush.

"I find," said the Hoboken sage yesterday, "that the prince was born under the fortunate planets, the sun and Mercury. He will therefore live to be 79 years old and will enjoy every minute of it, excepting when he is dodging bombs. In his early years he will apparently be delicate, but will survive all difficulties in safety. He will have several narrow escapes from death. When 29 he will have a desperate attempt made upon his life by a bomb thrower.

"At 19 he will ascend the throne, upon the death of his father. Just about that period he will be having a gay time. He will marry or form an alliance with a beautiful actress, probably from New York, and will become involved in a scandal. In fact, he will be very unfortunate with the fair sex.

"His domestic life will be very unhappy. He will be unpopular, but on the whole fortunate for anyone in the king business."—[New York World.

Carried His Own Sign

With a two foot hard board sign bearing the announcement, "I want work; no grafter; no apologies," hanging about his neck a man standing on Park Row, New York, yesterday created a sensation among the thousands of workers hurrying to their own jobs. To all inquiries as to what kind of work he sought the man replied. "Anything that is honest and does not require skilled labor. I am not a mechanic but I have an education and will prove my worth." The man finally said he was H. W. Leonard and that he came to New York five months ago. He got a job testing lamps, but an explosion put him in the hospital until recently. Other efforts to obtain work having been unavailing he decided to advertise himself in the manner he adopted. He suddenly disappeared and it was said he had secured a good position.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

Davis Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c.

Orchard Breaks Silence.

Harry Orchard, the prisoner-witness upon whom the State of Idaho chiefly relies to prove its charge that an inner circle of the Western Federation of Miners planned the murder of Governor Steunenberg, broke his long silence yesterday and for more than half an hour discussed himself and his imprisonment with newspaper representatives.

Orchard denied that he had received mistreatment during his long confinement; denied that duress or force had been used to secure the statement he had made, and denied that Detective McPartland and the officers of the state have promised him immunity for his confessed crime or reward for his alleged confession. Orchard's manner and conversation tended strongly to confirm the assertion that he has been reconverted to and is deep in the zeal of Christianity.

Orchard is perfectly sound in body; clear and quick of brain. If there was ever anything in the reports that he was breaking in health and mind, there is nothing now to give them a shadow of suggestion.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.
If it's painful periods with women, same cause.
If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

In a card addressed "To the People of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia," and published in the press of the district and otherwise, I have heretofore announced my views on the questions of moment which now concern the public.

Adopting that card as a part of this announcement, I now formally announce myself a candidate for Congress from the Eighth congressional district of Virginia, subject to the action of the congressional primary to be held Wednesday, June 19th, 1907.

In the event that I shall be nominated and elected, it will be my earnest desire and ambition to be of service to my district, State and country, and to faithfully represent every interest, and to justify, by every exertion in my power, the confidence reposed in me and honor conferred on me by my fellow democrats. Respectfully,
